Search for 'Ovid' in google

2

1. Click 'Ovid-
Welcome to Ovid'

The screenshot shows a Google search for "ovid". The search bar contains "ovid" and is highlighted with a red box. Below the search bar, the search results are displayed. The first result is from "www.ovid.com" with the title "Wolters Kluwer Ovid is the world's most trusted medical ...". Below this title, there is a description: "The leading medical research platform for nurses, doctors, students, professors, healthcare administrators, & allied health." and links to "Ovid MEDLINE", "About Ovid", "Ovid Ovid", and "Databases". The second result is from "ovidsp.ovid.com" with the title "Ovid: Welcome to Ovid", which is also highlighted with a red box. Below this title, there is a description: "Ovid Login. User ID: Password: OpenAthens Institutional Ovid SSO · Buy Articles. Buy immediate access to full text content from the latest, most trusted journals." Below the search results, there is a section titled "People also search for" with a list of related search terms: "ovid psycinfo", "ovid nursing", "ovid training", "ovid company", "ovid md", and "ovidweb cgi". At the bottom of the search results, there is a result from "www.ocimf.org" with the title "Offshore Vessel Inspection Database - OCIMF" and a description: "The Offshore Vessel Inspection Database (OVID) was developed in response to a request". On the right side of the search results, there is a knowledge panel for "Ovid", a Roman poet. The panel includes a grid of images of Ovid, a "More images" button, the name "Ovid", the title "Roman poet", and a brief biography: "Publius Ovidius Naso, known as Ovid in the English-speaking world, was a Roman poet who lived during the reign of Augustus. He was a contemporary of the older Virgil and Horace, with whom he is often ranked as one of the three canonical poets of Latin literature." Below the biography, there are links to "Wikipedia", "Born: March 20, 43 BC, Sulmona, Italy", and "Died: Constanța, Romania".
